PROTECTIVE ORDER REGULATING DISCLOSURE OF DISCOVERY AND SENSITIVE INFORMATION CONTAINED THEREIN

The United States of America, having filed a motion for a protective order regulating the disclosure of discovery and sensitive information contained therein to defense counsel in connection with the government's discovery obligations, and the Court finding good cause therefore:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the government is authorized to disclose sensitive information in its possession that the government believes necessary to comply with the discovery obligations imposed by this Court;

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the government shall mark that portion of the discovery that includes sensitive information as "Confidential";

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that counsel of record for defendants in this proceeding shall hold the portion of the Discovery marked as Confidential by the government in strict confidence. Therefore, defense counsel shall restrict access to this discovery, and shall disclose this discovery to their client, office staff, investigators, and to anticipated fact or expert witnesses only to the extent that defense counsel believes is necessary to assist in the defense of their client in this matter and in a manner that will prohibit the disclosure of this discovery to other persons not involved in the defense;

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that counsel of record for defendants shall inform any person to whom the portion of the Discovery marked as Confidential by the government is disclosed that such information shall be held in strict confidence, and that further disclosure or dissemination is prohibited without defense counsel's express consent; and to the extent a Defendant is in custody, defense counsel may show the Defendant copies of the Confidential portion of Discovery but may not provide the Defendant with copies of the Confidential portion of Discovery. Under no circumstance shall defense counsel permit the Defendant or any other individual to remove the Confidential portion of Discovery from defense counsel's office, retain any copies of the Confidential portion of Discovery, or reproduce in any manner the Confidential portion of Discovery;

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that counsel of record for defendants shall obtain a certification from each person to whom the Confidential portion of the discovery is disclosed (with the exception of office staff and investigators, the defendant, or any person or representative of a person identified in an affidavit or certification of records custodian as the source of the discovery materials being disclosed), in which the recipient, (a) acknowledges these restrictions as set forth in the Protective Order of the Court, and (b) agrees that they will not disclose or disseminate the information without express consent of defense counsel. Counsel shall keep a copy of each certification to identify the individuals who received the Confidential portion of the discovery and the date on which such information was first disclosed.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that counsel of record agree that, upon conclusion of the above captioned case,<sup>1</sup> copies of the Confidential portion of the discovery disclosed to defense counsel pursuant to the terms of this order shall be destroyed or returned to the United States.

DONE AND ORDERED in chambers at Miami, Florida, this _____ day of _____ 2022.
